

FIL General Assembly July 2016

FIL Membership Rights and Obligations

The Board is proposing that an additional Appendix is added to the FIL Bylaws covering member rights and obligations as below:

Rights

Members have the following rights:

- To take part in the General Assembly
- To submit proposals for inclusion in the agenda of the General Assembly
- To nominate candidates for FIL Board and Committee Chair positions
- To participate in FIL World events
- To participate in relevant development programs
- To exercise all other rights arising from the FIL Governing documents

The exercise of these rights is subject to other provisions in this Constitution and other applicable governing documents.

Obligations

Members have the following obligations:

- To comply with the FIL Constitution, Bylaws, Policies and Rules of the respective games
- To comply with directives and decisions made by the General Assembly

- To pay membership subscriptions and other fees as invoiced in accord with the Constitution, Bylaws and Policies
- To provide a timely response to all communications including requests for information and responses to postal votes
- To abide by the agreed Anti-Doping regulations and ensure that the domestic regulations are consistent with the World Anti-Doping Code and FIL Anti-Doping Bylaws
- To ensure that members own regulations (Constitution, Articles, and Statutes etc.) are complied with.
- To respect the Rules of the Games
- To determine its own office- holders by democratic elections, ensuring at all times an adequate minimum representation of each gender within its governance structure.
- Must be solvent
- To manage its own affairs autonomously and without interference from bodies outside of the Olympic movement.

Ron Balls
FIL Board
30th April 2016